Notes

- (i) These programme regulations should be read in conjunction with the University's Taught Programme Regulations.
- (ii) All optional modules are offered subject to the constraints of the timetable and to any restrictions on the number of students who may be taught on a particular module. Not all modules may be offered in all years and they are listed subject to availability.
- (iii) Unless otherwise stated under 'Type', modules are not core.
- (iv) A compulsory module is a module which a student is required to study.
- (v) A core module is a module which a student must pass, and in which a fail mark may neither be carried nor compensated; such modules are designated by the board of studies as essential for progression to a further stage of the programme or for study in a further module.
- (vi) All modules are delivered in Linear mode unless stated otherwise as Block, eLearning or distance learning.

6. Assessment methods

Details of the assessment pattern for each module are explained in the module outline.

7. Degree classification

Candidates will be assessed for Honours performance on the basis of the assessment of all modules taken at stage 2 plus all the modules taken at stage 3. Assessment from stage 3 counts for double that of stage 2.

The placement year does not contribute to the degree classification, but must be passed to gain the award of Bachelor of Arts with Honours in Politics and History (with Placement Year).

8. Degree Title

Candidates who complete the three-year programme will graduate with a BA (Hons) in Politics and History.

Candidates who choose to take part in the Career Placement year will be transferred onto the four-year version of the programme. They will be on degree programme code 1439U and will graduate with a BA (Hons) in Politics and History (with Placement Year)

Candidates who choose to take part in the Study Abroad year will be transferred onto the four-year version of the programme. They will be on degree programme code 1615U and will graduate with a BA (Hons) in Politics and History (with Study Abroad).
