Knowledge and Understanding

On completing the programme students should:

- A1 have an advanced knowledge and understanding of IPE
- A2 have knowledge of the more important approaches and methods in social science research and of the techniques required to carry out advanced research
- A3 have a foundation of specialist knowledge and research skills from which they can embark upon careers with significant international dimensions or pursue a postgraduate research degree in IPE

A4 have the theoretical and practical skills that will enable them to successfully complete an MA dissertation
Teaching and Learning Methods
The primary means of imparting knowledge and understanding is seminars (A1-A4). Throughout the MA programme students are strongly encouraged to engage in independent reading for which they are given extensive support and guidance on reading materials and their appropriate use. Students are strongly supported by staff in all aspects of their learning.
Assessment Strategy
Knowledge and understanding are assessed by research projects which are designed to assess theoretical and conceptual understanding and the capacity of students to relate knowledge through case studies and other empirically focused projects (A1-A4).
Intellectual Skills
On completing the programme students should be able to: B1 Synthesise information from a variety of primary and secondary sources B2 Analyse, evaluate and interpret principal source materials in IPE B3 Plan, conduct and communicate through research papers B4 Understand the theoretical basis of IPE research.
Teaching and Learning Methods
Cognitive skills are developed through seminars (B1-B2), research projects (B2-B3, B4) and supervision of research projects and dissertations (B3). Students are encouraged to develop cognitive skills through analysis of case studies (B1), independent reading and designing research projects (B2-B4).
Assessment Strategy
Intellectual skills are examined through research papers and the MA dissertation (B1-B4).
Practical Skills
On completing the programme students should be able to: C1 Critically evaluate key arguments in IPE C2 Critically evaluate the most important texts and themes in IPE C3 Present a reasoned and informed position both in writing and in spoken presentations C4 Identify, locate, and retrieve scholarly and other materials relevant to IPE
Teaching and Learning Methods
Critical skills are developed through independent reading and encouraging active participation individually and in groups in seminar settings (C1-C3). Formal spoken presentations (C3) and written research projects (C1-C4) are informed by appropriate materials in international political economy some of which references are provided to students and others of which students have to locate.
Assessment Strategy
Practical skills are assessed through research projects (C1-C4).
