- (a) Candidates must present themselves for examination in either two subjects or three subjects taking modules to a total credit value of 120 credits with a normal minimum of 40 credits in each subject.
- (b) Students may not take more than two Modern Language subjects, and only one of those may be studied at beginners' level. In addition students are not permitted to study Chinese and Japanese together.
- (c) In addition to the subject specific module selection, all students will take the following non-credit bearing module, HSS1111, 'University Culture and Study Support'.

3. Stage 2

Candidates must present themselves for examination in at least two subjects. These would normally have been studied at Stage 1. If candidates take three subjects they normally take modules to a total credit value of 40 in each. If candidates take two subjects they normally either take modules to a total credit value of 60 in each ('joint') or take modules to a total credit value of 80 ('major') in one subject and 40 ('minor') in the other. Candidates are permitted to take 20 credits of modules from outside their subjects at the discretion of the Degree Programme Director.

4. Stage 3

- (a) Candidates must normally take the same subjects and in the same credit weighting per subject as taken at Stage 2. Candidates are permitted to take 20 credits of modules from outside their subjects at the discretion of the Degree Programme Director.

- (b) If the mark gained during this Intercalating Stage in SML3007/8 or SML3006 (20 credits each) is greater than marks from 20 credits of Modern Language modules taken at Stage 2, then the mark from the former will be substituted for the lower stage 2 mark when calculating the degree average.
