2. Assessment methods

Details of the assessment pattern for each module are explained in the module outline.

3. Other

Before proceeding to the dissertation, candidates are normally expected:

(i) to pass the taught modules*

(ii) to have their ethics form and, where relevant, the travel and fieldwork risk assessment forms signed off by their supervisor

(iii) A student who fails up to 20 credits of non-core modules of the programme is recommended, as of right, for the degree award, provided that no single mark for any module assessed is below 40 and the weighted average mark for all modules (taking credit values into account) is at least 50. Such a student will be eligible as of right only for the award of a pass classification.

* Candidates can fail 20 credits of non-core modules and still proceed in accordance with the postgraduate taught examination conventions.
